Location
The L Lazy E Ranch is approximately 85 miles east of Tucson in scenic Cochise County. The ranch headquarters is accessed from Middle March Road west from Pearce.

General Description
The L Lazy E Ranch lies on the eastern foothills of the Dragoon Mountains. This beautiful range of mountains has a colorful history. Cochise, the famous Apache Chief, is buried in nearby Cochise Stronghold. The local town of Pearce is a noted ghost town which was a turn of the century mining town. Wyatt Earp led a posse through Middle March Pass, behind the ranch headquarters, in pursuit of outlaws.

This area is very scenic with broad vistas in every direction from the headquarters. The dry atmosphere allows views for thirty miles across Sulphur Springs Valley. There are miles of trails in the Dragoon Mountains for hiking, riding and wildlife viewing.
